THE WASHINGTON BEE

VOL. XIV. WASHINGTON, D. C., SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 29, 1896. No. 36.

Dr. Francis. See 4th page.

SISSIERIETTA JONES.

On her return from her triumphant European tour singing to crowded houses in England, Germany, France and Italy. Philadelphia, 5,000. She had a crowded house last evening at the Metropolitan Church.

They Say

Town Talk has never read history.

The colored attorney is doing well.

The trouble is an effort is being made to prejudice their people against him.

Long sentences is what the convicts get

Lynch law will soon be a thing of the past

Doctor F. J. Shadd is one of the most dignified physicians in the city.

The regular Emancipation Celebration will be led by the people.

A negro Vice-President would no doubt be a surprise to Town Talk.

The Sparta Buffet will have big receptions every Saturday evening.

Don't fail to take a free lunch at the Sparta Buffet every day from 1 to 2.

If Town Talk could disfranchise the negro no doubt it would be satisfied.

The negro will revolutionize this country some time.

The time will soon come when patience with the negro will cease to be a virtue.

The Shiloh Lyceum will meet at John Wesley Church.

It is thought that Rev. Taylor made a mistake.

Of course there are two sides to the question.

While the other side is preparing itself, exercises will be held at the John Wesley Church.

Read The BEE if you want the news.

Don't be alarmed, the Government at Washington still lives.

The people want the right of suffrage restored to the District of Columbia.

In Union there is strength.

Don't forget The BEE is the people's paper.

The more sensible colored people have confidence in the colored attorney.

Judge Cox is no donbt the best liked man on the supreme court bench.

It is the man who treats the people right that demands respect.

Inspector Hollingberger is a gentleman.

Town Talk to the contrary notwithstanding.

Let there be honesty in all things.

The fair of the Young Men's Christian Association under the management of Major C. A. Fleetwood is a success.

Major Fleetwood is the most popular military officer in the city.

He is a success in anything he undertakes.

The "marked" Congress is still holding reformation meetings.

Ladies need no reputation, hence they remain away.

If you want a reputation and character join the "marked" Congress.

Crap shooters and poker players are in the lead.

The senator from nowhere made a speech last week on morals.

The senator who had 90 days on the farm said his feelings had been offended by the speech of the senator from nowhere.

He wanted it understood that he was a privilege character and could do what he pleases.

The worse a man is, who comes to this city, remarked the senator from I don't know where, the better he is treated by the p ople.

This is a reflection on the morals of the colored people.

Can't help that, said Mr. Dolittle, from out West.

He was the King of them all, and he wanted it o understood.

It is a great fake to be member of the "marked" Congress.

The Emancipation Celebration is to be a success.

THE CLOVEN FOOT.

(From Town-Talk.)

I want to answer a few questions that The BEE asks in last Saturday's paper:

"Is there any honesty in the Afro-Americans?"

Some, I guess, but you would have to take a magnifying glass to find it.

"Why not advocate a negro for Vice-President?"

Because we do not want any more lynching, and to nominate a negro for Vice-President would be about the quickest way to get that "coon" out of the world.

"What can the negro expect under the next administration?"

He can expect to be left alone if he will keep his mouth shut and remember his position.

"Is there any attempt to break up the practice of the colored attorneys?"

They have none to break up.

The BEE says the Post is off on the negro question. I think The BEE is off on the newspaper question.

The BEE has been confident that it would only be a question of time before the Editors of Town Talk would show the cloven foot and their hidden venom against the Afro-American.

The records of the police department, and indeed, the entire criminal record of the country will show the conviction of more white people for dishonesty than any other nationality in the country.

If the Afro-American is dishonest at all, he may be in petty offenses, but the white man has caused the Government more trouble in their dishonesty in one state, than the entire negro race in the United States.

Who commits all the greatest and most barbarious crimes in this country?

What nationality is it that stands to-day the bleeding and outrageous menace to society?

It is that class of white criminals who have no regard for law and order; it is that class whose very deeds are living monuments to crime.

It is not necessary for an Afro-American to commit any offense before he is lynched. He may be sitting in his own house, sourrounded by his wife and children, and some offense may be committed by a white man in disguise, in nine cases out of ten, the innocent Afro-American is lynched.

There is no Government in the world more cowardly and less interested in the protection of the people against domestic and foreign invasions than this American republic.

Lynch law in this boasted republic is one of the unwritten, but recognized laws, among certain white people of the barbarian class.

Town Talk will be convinced that the Afro-American will not keep his mouth shut and the next administration, no matter what its political complexion may be, will recognize him.

He is an American citizen and he has a right, under our boasted constitution to fill any place to which he may be elected or appointed.

The colored attorney, it is said, has no practice to break up and yet it is the opinion of the best informed men in law who practice in the several courts of this city, that long sentences imposed upon colored criminals, who are defended by colored attorneys, means a black eye to the colored lawyers.

White men who commit the same offenses that colored men commits receive lighter sentences in many instances.

The cash as well as the credit accounts of the colored attorneys will compare favorably with many of the best white lawyers in the legal profession.

Not only is the Post off on the negro question, but Town Talk is rattled and nervous for fear that the Afro-American will reach the pinacle of fame earlier than it would have him.

OPPRESSION.

The wholesale tirade against the liquor dealers of this city looks like barbarity.

What good will it be to this community to raise the tax on sample rooms or saloons?

The present tax is entirely too high. It looks as if an attempt is being made on the part of the aristocracy to suppress the poor. When you place some men in position, especially persons who are not use to office, they forget themselves and that moment they oppress the people.

SENATOR BRUCE AS A DELEGATE.

The republicans of Montgomery County, Miss., have elected Ex-Senator B. K. Bruce a delegate to the State Convention to meet at Jackson, on March 4.

Mr. Bruce having stated again and again that he would not except a delegateship; and if elected will, we believe, decline to serve. He ought to accept and go to St. Louis and help to fight the great battle of 1896.

His influence and prestige is greatly needed.

EDITOR FORTUNE IN THE SOUTH.

(From the New Orleans Republican.)

A telegram from Washington to the Chicago Inter-Ocean telis of T. Thos. Fortune's great success, politically, with Southern negroes, and adds that he nows holds Fred. Douglass' position in influence, etc., with the colored people, all of which is balderdash. Fortune came to Louisiana, got so drunk upon his arrival that he could not navigate, spent money as freely as water flows in an effort to have some "influence" among the colored people, and when the time came to show the effects of the peculiar "influence" he was using, his candidates were snowed under. And what was true of him here, is equally true of him in his entourage of other Southern States. Fortune may be, and is, a first-class journalist, but as a political agent he is a miserable failure.

Editor Fortune is a gentleman and a journalist of high character. Whether he has influence or not, he has the respect and confidence of the Afro-American press of this country.

There will never be but one Douglass no matter who may aspire to take his place.

Be more charitable and give Editor Fortune a chance.

"MISS FLAGLER'S PLEA."

Justice Cox, who imposed a fine and three hours imprisonment upon Miss Flagler, was acuated by the purest motives. The District Attorney made the recommendation and Judge Cox, who didn't know the facts in the case as well as the District Attorney is not to be condemned or criticised. The District Attorney no doubt had his reasons for pursuing the course he did, and The BEE is of the opinion that the District Attorney is sincere in all he does, although corrupt people may attempt to misrepresent themselves to him.

The case is ended, and there is nothing that can remedy the unfortunate killing of little Ernest Green.

We don't know the facts in the case as well as the District Attorney,

We can only be guided by what has come to our knowledge.

If the sentence of Judge Cox by fine and imprisonment justifies "Miss Flagler's Plea" there is nothing we can do.

The law has taken its course.

We are living in a most progressive age, an age which has been productive of the greatest and most wonderful achievement of man. An age remarkable for advancement in every branch of human art science and invention.

Not only have art science, literature and invention taken great strides, but medicine also is rapidly forging to the front. Human ills and disease are receiving more attention, more consideration. Medical men are cutting lose from the old lines, the old ruts, and well-beat n paths of empiricism and are looking up new roads to fields of brilliant achievements It is only a question of short time when the laity will begin to appreciate the efforts of these men of science and will endeavor to so sustain and encourage that greater deeds might be done

The Quack Voodoo, Pill Vender, and Charlaten will be soon be relegated. Men of the old school who are wedded to their antiquities will be considered as withering memories. The young men, the progressive men, the men who work will get recognition.

The scientific treatment of disease, is what the age demands. The empiricism of half a centuary ago will not be tolerated. These things must come, and those who are alive to these issues must be prepared to meet them when they come.

It is a known fact that few people, though intelligent, know how to properly attend and nurse a sick patient, hence the urgent necessity of a trained nurse. Parents and loved ones are unfit to entirely care for their sick ones, they are too anxious, too liable to over do, too disp sed to allow a patient to do as he pleases.

Physicians are often blamed and censured for the results of things which happen when he is elsewnere. We hold the doctor responsible. These things being thus shaped show that it will inevitably come when no sick one will be treated at his home; hospitals, and sanatariums will be and should be the only place where the sick will be cared for.

Those of the next century will look back and wonder how did we old foggies manage to care for our sick at home, or how did the race escape extinct on. So as sure as night follows day we will come to the point when our sick will be treated in some institution, especially designed and conducted for that purpose.

It will be better for the sick, it will be better for those in health. Why?

First, because such an institution has every convenience, every arrangement, every facility for scientifically administering to the sick.

SANATARIUM.

Secondly. Because they must have a corps of trained nurses who know their business, and good nursing is more than half.

Third The diseipline and decorum of such a place is naturally conducive to convalescence.

Fourth. One would be away from the annoyance and solicitude of anxious friends, and always in an atmosphere of bright and encouraging environments.

Since these things are true. Why should we not begin to prepare and examine into fitness of such places. Surely we are all interested,

Last May. Dr. John R. Francis took one step in the right direction He saw afar. He recognized what was to come. He realized the necessity of being ready when science demanded that we must embrace the benefits of investigators.

Dr. Francis opened up a private sanatarium in all its glory. Every necessary arrangement, every detail. Nothing was lacking.

He placed within comfort's homelike, and this born to mortals is in its glory, standing out as a monument to its founder. I s success was assured from the beg nning and daily it is progress ng. And when it is khown to the laity and profession that such a place is such a benefit, it will be impossible to accomodate all who seek its advantages.

The sanatarium is open to visitors daily from 3 to 5 p. m. The matron and nurses are polite and accomo lating and every one is welcome to visit and see for himself so he can understand and appreciate its merits or demerits. Many complain because such a place they consider too luxurious. This is a great mistake. If one will examine the terms he can read and see as l e runs that he can be treated there cheaper, than in one's own home, besides enjoying all the increased advantages such a place has over one's home.

The facts are worth your consideration, and as all are welcomed to visit there and see. It is only necessary to invite your attention to it.

Very Respectfully,,
"ONE WHO WAS THERE."

HELPING THE PEOPLE.

The People's Co-operative Bnrial Association of the District of Columbia, should be favorably considered by the people and all members of secret and beneficial societies. Just think of it, Mr. S. H. Hines, Undertaker and Embalmer, has three offices, one 423 G street, n. w., one at 2201 14th street, n. w., and the other at 910 4½ street, s. w., where you can go and be well treated and be accomodated with a first-class funeral for any of your dead friends or relatives for the small sum of one hundred dollars and give you time to pay.

For one hundred dollars you get
1 black cloth casket;
1 outside case;
1 hearse;
1 door crape;
Embalming body;
Opening and closing grave.
Services at the funeral.

These are only few of the benefits accorded by this association and in the next issue of The BEE the full details and benefits of this association will be laid before the people.

A NEW YORK DAILY FREE.

The Greatest Offer Ever Made in the History of American Journalism.

ACT WITHOUT DELAY

Or You May Lose the Golden Opportunity of a Lifetime.

For the purpose of rapidly increasing the circulation of the New York Daily and Sunday Mercury, established fifty-eight years ago, the Mercury Printing Company (capital stock, $500,000.00), incorporated under the laws of New York, makes the greatest offer ever made in the history of American journalism by an institution of the standing and magnitude of the New York Mercury.

For a limited time only, shares of stock in this corporation of the par value of ten dollars will be sold at face value—$10. Each share of stock carries with it a free copy of the Daily and Sunday Mercury.

We will send one copy of the Daily and Sunday Mercury free to every shareholder as long as the stock is held by him or his assigns. For example, if a subscriber purchases ten shares of stock he will be entitled to ten copies of the Daily and Sunday Mercury free to his own or any other address as long as he continues to be a stockholder of the corporation. These copies of the paper may be disposed of by subscribers to the capital stock in any way desired by them.

This proposition is open to all—newsdealers included.

If you care to invest only ten dollars in one share you can by merely holding the same receive the Daily and Sunday New York Mercury as long as you live, and can bequeath the privilege to your heirs.

There will be only a limited amount of this stock disposed of in this way. Those who are lucky enough to obtain these shares will find that in a very short time they will be worth 300 per cent. premium.

For further particulars address the

SUPERINTENDENT OF CIRCULATION,

ACROSS THE CONTINENT.

Western crops all appear to be doing well, including the Presidential.

Uncle Sam now has 17,564,800 acres of forest under his Federal protection.

There are in Chicago about 150,000 persons who are paying for bicycles on the installment plan.

Of the 79,415 seamen shipped at the seaports of the United States during the year ending June 30 only 21,415 were Americans.

The Boston Post-Office is, as usual, one of the banner offices of the country, having made an increase in business of 17¾ per cent. over the previous year.

Cincinnati is to have a cat-breeding farm, and instead of being a mark for bootjacks, Pussy is to be fed and pampered; but she will have to pay for it all at last, for it is Pussy's fur that is the objective.

The 9 o'clock curfew ordinance, so popular in other Minnesota towns, will soon be adopted in Duluth. The proposed ordinance prohibits all persons under 15 years old from appearing on the streets after 9 o'clock, and provides a penalty of $100 fine or 90 days in jail for violating the law.

The impulsive contribution of $60,000 towards a missionary fund to be used in Northern China, at a Sunday's meeting of the Christian Alliance, at Old Orchard, Me., is an eloquent example of devotion to a chosen cause, and of the strength which moves us forward on the road of spiritual as well as material progress.

The Textile School of Philadelphia now has about 700 students. It teaches fine weaving, and it is said that its diplomas "are an open sesame to employment in every New England mill town."

The apricot crop in California is comparatively short this season. Pomona County will produce but about 750 tons, as against 2,800 tons last year.

The Commissioner of Navigation has been looking over our laws relating to ships, and has learned, with surprise the country will share, that masters of vessels engaged in foreign trade are still required to make oath that none of their crew were impressed for service in the British navy during the last voyage. The war of 1812 did away with the necessity of the oath, which has lingered for 80 years unnoticed on the statutes.

The National Association of Elocutionists is making a special effort to have every city of 25,000 or more inhabitants provide a separate school for the instruction of stammerers, where they will not merely receive the proper vocal training, but be constantly under the supervision, during school hours, of teachers familiar with the treatment of such deficiencies, and able to check every tendency to fall back into the old habit. Such schools have been eminently successful in Germany.

NEWSY AND PERSONAL.

The picture of ex-President Harrison, painted by Eastman Johnson, has been hung in the White House. It is considered an excellent likeness.

A Monroe (Me.) farmer is credited with the discovery that a Bramah rooster boxed up, in a field, will give out crows loud enough to make all the wild crows ashamed of themselves, and save the grain.

A Richmond (Ky.) couple stopped an auctioneer while he was selling a lot of cradles and made him marry them. Then they bought a cradle, the crowd cheered and everybody was happy. The auctioneer was also a justice of the peace.

Kentuhcky has evolved another big tree story. It—that is, the tree—grew on Bear Creek. It was seventy feet from the ground to the first limb, varying from five feet and a half to four feet ten inches in diameter. It turned out $150 worth of lumber.

Mrs. Klock, a young woman of Saginaw, Mich., made a serious mistake in trying to kill herself. She ate half a dozen cucumbers, rind and all, and then took rat poison. Either might have killed her, but one dose counteracted the other and she is still alive.

The heirs of Gen. Albert Pike, famous in his day as a mason, author and poet, have filed a claim in the United States Court of Claims for $200,000 against the Choctaw Nation. Gen. Pike was counsel for the Choctaws, and Congress, through his efforts, it is alleged, allowed the Indians $2,858,798.

It was an agriculturist in Washington County, Kansas, who devised a new scheme for dealing with chinch bugs. He let a few die and decay in a jar; then put some live ones in with them, and after three days set the prisoners free. In two weeks all the bugs had disappeared from his fields.

A Pittsburg lawyer went to Ottumwa, Iowa, and found James Henry Scott working as electrician for a hotel at $7 a week. He apprised him that he was one of three heirs to the estate of his father, Otto Scott, a native of Germany. The son ran away years ago, and since that time his father has become immensely wealthy. His share will be more than $1,000,000.

ITEMS THAT INTEREST.

People with the colic may not be anxious to know it, but there are nearly 3,000 varieties of apples in this world.

Summer hotels are now looked upon as a matrimonial market. It is said that more marriages are made at the different resorts than are made in heaven.

The value of all property used for educational purposes in the United States is placed at $600,000,000; the public school property alone is valued at $400,000,000.

A medical authority on the virtues of various kinds of food declares that the herring gives the muscles elasticity, the body strength, and the brain vigor, and is not flesh-forming.

After the recent eruption of Vesuvius and while the lava was still smoking hot, scores of small boys from Naples climbed the mountain to the very edge of the crater and pelted each other with chunks of steaming lava.

The movement in favor of summer outings for poor children in London and other large cities of England is stronger this year than ever. Philadelphia was the first big city to move in this matter many years ago.

The straw plait used for hats and bonnets is chiefly made in the counties of Bedford, Bucks and Hertford. A large quantity is made by young girls at their own homes. Lutton, in Bedfordshire, is the centre of the straw bonnet manufacture.

It Makes More Bread,

than any other flour. Makes 300 1 lb. loaves to the barrel. That's about ONE FOURTH MORE than other brands make. That's why you should use Cream Blend Flour. Not the only reason however. The most important is that

Cream Blend Flour

Don't become conceited and forget the fact that every man and woman of average mind and ability can do some one thing better than any one else can do it.

A good advice is to try and discover our special gift and foster it in every possibly way.

We are more apt to listen or except the advice of a well dressed person than from an ill dressed unpreposessing one, hence the art of being good looking should be cultivated.

Developments are greater than requirements and of a far more determing force, therefore all the best of life should come from within.

The right of living aright consists of the ability to recognize an opportunity when it is presented, whether it be to acquire mental or spiritual developments.

B. Z. The head of the table means any place that the husband may sit, as he is the head of the family and by courtesy his place is called the head.

No household can have all the joys it is entitled to without a certain amount of warm-heartedness on the part of the mistress.

A disposition of self-indulgence which leads one to assume responsibilities without consideration unfits you to bear them easily when they happen to become heavy.

It is not necessary for a young man to visit a girl so long that they know every fault and all the goodness that each other possesses.

Bride. Utilize fragments of toilet soap by putting them in a small bag of Turkish toweling; when the bag is nearly full, sew up the end and use it as you would a cake of soap. It is especially nice in the bath.

If a woman will not make it pleasant for her husband's friends at home, it is perfectly natural for him to see them in the club-room, or where things are more congenial.

Cora: Many a charming visit has been spoiled by being prolonged beyond a convenient time, and my advice is to invite your friend to visit you for a designated time; at the end of that time, if convenient you might extend the invitation. No sensible person will take an exception to it

The true spirit of hospitality makes you welcome and most heartily, and so far as possible happy.

It is not womanly to invite a person to your house when you know he will be burdensome, although it is a great fad.

A man most admires a woman who is gentle and whose traits are feminine or woman'y.

Ida: Etiquette demands that the family of the bride furnish everything except the carriage that takes the couple to the church, the minister's fee and a bouquet for the bride and her attendants, but so many make this breach of etiquette that but little attention is paid to it Most girls think it strange if the groom fails to furnish the invitations.

Cleanliness does much towards godliness and a clean mind aids you to have clear thoughts and a clean soul.

When a gentleman is walking after dark with a young lady, he should offer her his left arm and not his right, even though it may put her on the outer side, as he should have that free for her defense.

No gentleman judges a woman by the finery she wears, but dudes are seldom seen with an unfashionable girl.

Dear girls, don't make a mistake and marry for a title, for many of them are empty. A hard working man very often makes a better husband than those posessing a title.

There was an interesting scene at Shiloh Baptist Church on last Sunday evening when Lawyer Thomas L. Jones the President of the Lyceum announced the close of the Lyceum for the year. The announcement came like a clap of thunder out of a clear sky, as the members of the Lyceum had had no intention that such action would be taken.

Mr. Jones arose after the conclusion of the exercises and said that at a call meeting of the church held on Friday night last, the church in his absence while he lay at home on a sick bed unable to appear, and without notifying him of its proposed intentions, or signifying in any way that it was displeased with his administration, had without giving him an opportunity of explanation or a chance for self vindication, passed a resolution closing the Young People's Lyceum.

As a trustee of the church and as the President of this organization, Mr. Jones felt that the church had not only treated him with utter disregard, but had insulted the organization over which he presided At this he felt grieved. They could not complain of him for failure of discharge of duty for his bittered apponent must admit that for the year or more of his incumbency in the Presidency, that only on two Sundays was he absent from his post of duty, occasioned by filling engagements to speak, once at the Vermont Avenue Baptist Church and the other at a church in Georgetown, and at no time has the organization been disappointed in having persons of prominence and ability to entertain them.

At the conclusion of Mr. Jones defense for the Lyceum, the paper by Mr. Thompson entitled "the vicissitudes of women" was discussed.

After which Mr. Fossett took the floor and denounced the Pastor and those who had taken snap judgement against the Lyceum and concluded by making a motion indorsing the conduct of Lawyer Jones and commending him for what he had done, etc.

The motion was adopted by a rising vote. Fully one thousand people stood up and voted, which was an evidedce of their disapproval of the church in closing the Lyceum. The Lyceum will meet to-morrow afternoon at the John Wesley Church and will reorganize under the auspices of that fine congregation. An excellent program has been prepared.

The widow of the late Brother John Gaskins is said to be in destitute circumstances at her home on 32d street, n. w. A fund was recently raised for her benefit, but she has not as yet received any benefit.

Time of sermons 11 a. m., Sabbath School, 3 p. m., and evening services 7:30. All friends and well-wishers are cordially invited, &c., &c.

Last week, Rev Peter Lucas, D. D., delivered several sermons at the Ebenezer Methodist Church, in West Washington, D. C., assisting the Rev. Brother D. B. Seaton, D D., Thursday evening. EDITORIAL SYNOPSIS.

Behold how good and pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity! It is like the precious ointment upon the head, that ran down upon the beard, even Aron's beard that went down on the skirts of his garments. As the dew of Hermon, and the dew that descended upon the Mountains of Zion; for there the Lord commanded the blessing even life evermore. Now what a nice thing it would be if some brethren would take due and timely notice of the above and be governed accordingly, &c., &c.

Degrees in Secret Orders are like articles of merchandize, and when you can't get them from one place go to the place where you can get them, and if possible, then get them. This is logic and sound sense.

Man that is born of a woman is of a few days and full of trouble. He generally sees it when he gets mixed up in petty fights and jealousies, and when he has a mother-in-law.

Never encourage people to do a thing and after you take them so far drop them. It will be found that it is policy to let them go the end of the route, especially when they have the sugar to sweeten the coffee. (Talk Boy.) MEXICAN MUSTANG LINIMENT.

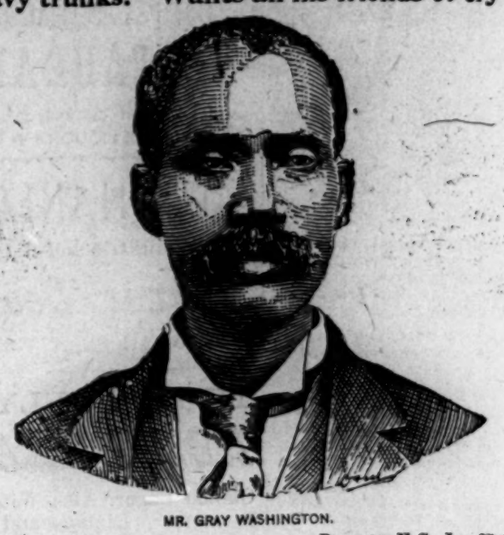
Mashes fingers and strains back handling heavy trunks. Wants all his friends to try it.



MR. GRAY WASHINGTON.

RALEIGH, N. C., Jan. 27, 1896.

Lyon Manufacturing Co., Brooklyn, N. Y.

Gentlemen:—I was always having Rheumatism until I tried Mexican Mustang Liniment, and it took all the pain away. I think it the best remedy I ever used for such things as bruises and strains. I often mash my fingers and strain my back handling heavy trunks around the hotel, and I always find that Mexican Mustang Liniment will fix me all right again. I rub it in well and continue to use it until the pain has left the afflicted parts. I wish all my friends would give it a trial, and I know they will never use anything else. It is a mighty good thing for rheumatism I know from personal use. I always recommend it to all my friends.

I am, yours truly,
